Robert T. Parson, Treasurer and General Manager of the F. W. Woolworth Company, has bought Shadow Lawn, the former summer home of President Wilson, near West Long Branch, N. J. The property, which includes sixty-five acres, has been sold by the Harrison-Langham Corporation for nearly $1,000,000. FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles, while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any drugist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case. Be sure to ask the drugist for the double strength Othine as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Advt.

EVERY TIME HE MOVED HE GOT A TURKISH BULLET

Sergt. Coubrough Moved Four Times in Gallipoli and Was Wounded Four Times.

Sergt. A. T. Coubrough, who was wounded four times at Gallipoli, and who, in declining heroism, declared the only real heroes there are in their graves, to-day spoke at the Liberty Bell Red Cross rally in City Hall Park. He told why every one should give to the Red Cross, and in describing his experience, said: "I got a bullet in my hand twenty yards from a Turkish trench. The shock was so great that I nearly executed a somersault. I must have fainted after I landed, for a Turkish rifleman, speaking with a leaden messenger, told me to be quiet. Later, suffering from my wound and the blistering sun I again moved. The answer was a bullet in the right breast."

"After that I kept quiet as long as I could. At times the pain drove me half delirious. In one of those paroxysms I leaped to my feet. This time the watching Turk got me in the thigh. Twenty hours later, during which I repeatedly passed from consciousness to unconsciousness, I man-

EACH step you take on hard pavements gives you a harmful jolt.

On six days of the week, perhaps, you do not notice this continual shaking up, but then comes a day when you feel every shock distinctly and unpleasantly.

The longer you go without protection from unyielding concrete the greater the strain becomes on your nerves.

The Dr. A. Reed Cushion Shoe has done much for city people in keeping good nerves steady and guarding sensitive nerves from strain. The famous cushion brings comfort, and comfort is necessary to health.

TOOK LIQUOR INTO CAMP. New Workman Is Confined to Upton for Six Months.

William C. Croley, a civilian workman employed at Camp Upton, pleaded guilty before Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day taking liquor into the camp. His plea that it was for his own consumption did not mitigate the offense. But when the Judge heard that Croley was a steady workman and greatly needed at the camp he was inclined to leniency. On the prisoner's promise that he would not leave the military reservation at Yaphank between now and next November Judge Garvin permitted him to go.

Six men and a woman who were convicted of selling liquor to soldiers and sailors were punished variously with sentences of from one day to six months in jail.

GROUT INDICTMENTS OFF. Court Dismisses Two in Connection With Union Bank Failure.

Justice Van Sicken, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to-day dismissed two indictments against Edward M. Grout, former President of the Defunct Union Bank, Brooklyn, charging perjury and permitting a misdemeanor. In July, 1915, Grout was sentenced to serve from one to two years in Sing Sing Prison following conviction for alleged misstatements of assets of the bank to the State authorities. He got a certificate of reasonable doubt, and the Appellate Division denied permission to the District Attorney to carry the case to the Court of Appeals. District Judge Lewis, who as County Judge sentenced Grout, asked for the dismissal of the indictments to-day.

HITS SISTER IN COURTROOM. Bronx Man Adds to Sentence and Gets One Himself.

In the course of an argument in Morrisania Courtroom to-day, after the conviction of his sister on a charge of disorderly conduct, for which she was fined $20, Benjamin Karstadt, No. 1913 Kelly Street, the Bronx, struck his sister in the eye and was arrested by court attendants.

Karstadt was arraigned immediately and sentenced to the Workhouse for twenty days. His sister, Mrs. Salie Cohen, had been arrested on a charge preferred by her sister-in-law, Karstadt's wife.

A MYSTERY. (From the Boston Transcript.) "Who was that lady I saw yer talkin' to at the ball game, Jimmy?" "That was our school teacher. I was tryin' to make her understand how the game is played, but it wasn't any use. Gee! I don't see how she ever got to be a school teacher."

DENY "WIDOW" OF SIRE EVER WAS HIS WIFE

Brothers of Late Millionaire Sue to Oust Woman as Administratrix of Estate.

The estate of Henry B. Sire, millionaire real estate and theatre magnate, who died in January, 1917, came into court to-day with the filing in the Surrogate's office of a petition asking the removal of Mrs. Lizzie Sire as administratrix of the estate.

The plaintiffs are Albert L. Meyer and Leander S. Sire, brothers of the decedent, and they base their petition on the allegation that Mrs. Sire never was Henry B. Sire's wife; that their brother was a bachelor and had often made affidavit to that effect.

Mrs. Sire says she and Sire went to live together in 1876, Sire placing a ring on her finger and declaring them man and wife. For forty years they lived together, she says, the last twenty years at No. 227 West 81st Street, where he died and where she still lives.

Surrogate Fowler appointed former Supreme Court Justice F. Browne referee to take testimony and report on the entire controversy.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS
By Lieut.-Colonel JOHN McRAE
(Died while on duty in Flanders.)

IN FLANDERS fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly,
Scarce heard amidst the guns below.
We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe!
To you from falling hands we throw
The torch. Be yours to hold it high!
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.
